1. Though this public interest litigation was filed seeking a direction from this Court to get an inquiry conducted into the cause of death of children, which occurred in Asha Kiran Shelter Home in Rohini, Delhi in the month of July, 2024, however, we find it appropriate to call upon the respondents to file a status report about the physical conditions prevailing in the Asha Kiran Shelter Home, Rohini. The said status report shall be based on a technical audit of the entire building and shall also give details of the inmates and their physical and health conditions. The report shall also contain the living condition of the children, capacity of the Home and its occupancy, availability of facilities to cater to children's daily needs, etc.

2. The report about the health conditions of the inmates shall be based on a thorough medical examination, which shall be conducted by a team of well qualified Doctors to be deputed by the respondents. The status report will also disclose the number of sanctioned strength of the staff and the number of occupancy and vacancy as well against the sanctioned posts. The said status report shall be filed within two months.

3. List on 15.04.2026.
